

The Maryland Association of Historic District Commissions (MAHDC) is pleased to invite you to the

2024 ANNUAL MAHDC SYMPOSIUM

Climate Change, Disaster Resilience, and Underrepresented Communities

The 2024 Annual MAHDC Symposium will take place on Thursday, May 23rd, from 8:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. at the historic Newton White Mansion in Mitchellville, Maryland. The symposium program will feature presentations by local, state, and national experts on climate adaptation, flood resilience, and preservation.

Session topics include historic preservation, disaster resilience, hazard mitigation, collaborative conservation, equity, and underrepresented communities. The event will conclude with a presentation on Placemaking by a textile artist and an architect whose innovative work explores memory and remembrance. MAHDC is offering AIA CEU credits and AICP CM credits for the sessions.

Please register here for the Symposium by May 20th:
