We Aim to Improve Architect Diversity in Maryland

The following topics will be addressed at the forum:

- Understanding the process of taking the ARE and becoming an Architect in Maryland.
- How the Maryland Board of Architects works.
- How does the Maryland Board qualify candidates to take the ARE?
- What is NCARB and why is it important in the licensure process?
- What are NCARB's ARE resources for exam candidates?
- What is the AIA and how does it fit into the process of licensure?
- What resources does UMD have to assist those on the path to licensure?
